Stock—There was but very little news to affect values in the stock market. The further engagement of $850,000 gold for chipment to this country and the return of the strikers of the New York, Pennsylvania and O. in were the only items of special importance. The market, however, continued the alvance begue yesterday, and before the movement was checked material advances over last night's figures had been recorded. London was a buyer been recorded. London was a buyer early in the day, its special favorites being Residing, Lake Shore and Northern Pacific preferred. There was also considerable foreign buying of Canadian Pacific, Louisville and Nickel Playe. The stories of the latest and Nickel Playe. ville and Nickel Plate. The stories of the latter again assumed the shape of an issue of conds by the Lake Shore to take up the indebtedness of the compiny. The special feature of the day is the marked advance in several specialist, chief among which were Missoni Pacific, the San Francisco and Manhaitan Elevated. The Vandarbilts were favored by the Lake Shore and Nickel Plate stories, a though New York Central was quiet and steady York Central was quiet and steady throughout the day. Western Union throughout the day. Western Unfor was active, but its fluctuations were small and its find changes insign fican'. New England was bid up in the morning but it sag ed off later in the day, most of its final gain being made at the opening. The grangers attribut d to lack of telegraphic comeral market during the afternoon was rather heavy, but recovered its tine shorily before the cine. The opening was strong at advances ranging from 1 to 1. Missouri Pacific, Jersey Central and New England showed the widest differences. There was considerable irregularity in the early trading, the conspicuously strong etocks being New England, Missouri Pacific, Louis ville and Nashville and Pacific while Jersey Central and Western Union were noticeably weak. After the first half hour the market became firm to strong and so continued until just previous to the close, when the list recovered and the close was steady to firm, close to the best prices of the day. Sales, 424, 808 shares. Western Union furnished 40,801; Lackawanna, 40,440; St. Paul, 32,203. There are a few declines, but they are for insignific at fractions Manhatin is up 31; Missouri only.
